The Folded Flag Foundation Receives $25K Donation from Black Knight Financial Services

Donation will help fund educational scholarships for families of fallen heroes

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – January 17, 2017 – The Folded Flag Foundation is pleased to announce it has received a $25,000 donation from Black Knight Financial Services to help fund educational opportunities for the families of America's bravest heroes.

Folded Flag is a non-profit, 501(c)(3) organization that relies on public and corporate donations to fulfill its mission of providing educational scholarships to surviving family members of military and government employees who have lost their lives in combat while serving our country.

The scholarship opportunities offered by The Folded Flag Foundation include:

- Children's education scholarships for private school tuition and educational programs and for children in grades K-12.
- Scholarships for spouses and dependents to attend college or technical/trade school.

"The sacrifices paid by the brave men and women who gave their lives for our liberty is the greatest contribution of all," said Tom Sanzone, CEO of Black Knight Financial Services. "Black Knight is honored to make this donation to The Folded Flag Foundation to help fund educational scholarships and give back to the families who have already given so much. We are also proud to underwrite administrative costs, which allows 100 percent of all donations to go straight to the families in need."

"We are pleased to accept this generous donation from Black Knight Financial Services," said John Coogan, Executive Director of The Folded Flag Foundation. "The Folded Flag Foundation is dedicated to positively impacting spouses and children by helping create educational pathways to success."
